

PRESS CUTTING

The Law Society Gazette 4 May 2006

● FOX TAILS A CHALLENGE

Well-known City lawyer Ronnie Fox this week launched his new firm, called Fox, specialising in complex employment and partnership issues, with a focus on advising law firms. He has so far recruited two assistants following his departure from Fox Williams. He said he wanted the excitement of starting something new and to have a practice which concentrated 'on the difficult stuff that needs grey hair'.